FARMINGTON FAIRGROUNDS

FRANKLIN COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Foothills Fest Fun

A fun day of festivities is planned for Foothills Fest hosted by the Franklin County Chamber of Commerce on August 26 from 10am-6pm at the Farmington Fairgrounds. Live music from a variety of local musicians will be performing throughout the day playing everything from rock and folk to country and the classics. Artisans, crafters and businesses will have displays located outside and inside and demonstrators from local businesses will be presenting information on various hobbies and crafts in the Starbird Building. Kris MacCabe from North Woods Law will be greeting people and the National Guard will be bringing their vehicle for children to explore.

Enjoy a refreshing beverage from the beer and wine garden. Play Bizopoly with Chamber Members by visiting booths with corresponding game pieces and enter the completed game card to win Chamber Bucks! A 60ft long inflatable obstacle course will be there for people of all ages to partake in the fun challenge and is included in the admission price. Cory will be visiting from WCSH6 showcasing the weather gear in his vehicle "Stormy". The Stanley Museum will be showcasing one of their Stanley Steamers. A variety of food trucks will be providing delicious food and refreshments to be enjoyed at the festival as well. Entry to Foothills Fest is $5, children 12 and under free. A live broadcast of the festival will be provided by WKTJ. Thank you to our sponsors Franklin Savings Bank and Skowhegan Savings Bank.
