Subway Ribbon Grand Opening

Subway celebrated their Grand Opening in the Farmington Walmart on January 5th. The Franklin County Chamber of Commerce joined in the celebration with a ribbon cutting ceremony. Co-owners of the local store, Gary Hillard and Melissa Karkos, hosted a sandwich making competition between

Sen. Tom Saviello, Rep. Russell Black, and Rep. Lance Harvell to raise money for local organizations. The legislators attempts at sandwich making were declared a tie and a donation was made to Wilton Fish & Game, Western Maine Homeless Outreach and The Franklin County Children's Task Force.

Business After Hours

The Franklin County Chamber of Commerce's January Business After Hours was hosted by Allied Realty on Thursday, January 19. Guests socialized and networked while enjoying sandwiches, fish chowder, baklava and refreshments courtesy of the Allied Realty staff. Penny Meservier discussed member to member discounts and the county-wide broadband initiative. Aaron Bolster of Allied Realty told attendees that he is proud to be a part of this community and supports the Chamber and its good work. At the end of the evening attendees enjoyed door prizes and guessed how many gumballs were in a jar and the closest guess won a gas card. The winner of the gas card was Karolyne Sloma who guessed closest with 583 gumballs!
